SUBJECT: Ministry's Views on Aftermath of King Saud's Visit to U.S.

Recently,
expressed considerable apprehension over what would happen to King Saud while attending the four-nation meeting in Cairo. He feared that much of the good work accomplished in Washington would be undone by NASSER. On the positive side, he expressed satisfaction over Saud's reported statement, addressed to Pakistan, to the effect that he fully understood the reasons for its joining the Baghdad Pact.
